This truly brings back many memories for me, and pictures lovely to see that I knew not before. I remember Dad with such fondness, laughter, and always a positive spin on life. An encourager to me. He personified joy in every way that I can remember. Looking at the pictures, seeing Dad and Kay with Joe Jr, Grey, and Ray, there is a lot of Dad in their faces and mannerisms, how comforting to me. Our sympathy and prayers to you and your family.

With Love

I only knew Mr. Cartledge through work. He was always smiling and made my day better more then once. Just a very genuine nice man. It was an honor knowing him and waiting on him for the year and half that I worked at the bank. I know He will truly be missed by all, and My Heart goes out to His Family and loved ones.
