“ I recently took a quick trip to Jackson and heard of Joe's passing from My Aunt, Faye Bishop. I was in total shock. My heart goes out to his family. We shared many laughs throughout the years when I visited Jackson. I'll miss seeing his smile. God Speed Joe.

“ I think the last time I saw Joe was over 50 years ago when dad and mother (Lee Duncan Ellis, Sr. and Martha Lathrop Ellis) and I visited the Cassel home in Ellenton. Dad was Joe's granddad CB's next to the youngest brother. Therefore Joe's and I were either second cousins or first cousins once removed, depending on who you are talking to! I am older as I will be 70 in March.

We pray that the friends and family will find peace and confort during these difficult times.

*Joe worked with my husband, Larry Trotter and Joe was a pallbearer at my husband's funeral. Joe called and checked on me until he got real sick
He was a caring and compassionate man. He is not in pain anymore.
He will be missed very much. He loved his mom a lots. Now they can be together*
