“ Joe and I grew up together, cousins. I lived about 1/4 mile up the road. We managed to get into a lot of trouble together when we were little. Aunt Helen would save his outgrown blue jeans and flannel shirts for me and another cousin. I always loved denim and flannel and back then, they did not make jeans and such for girls - so we waited for Joe to grow out of his.

I remember his sister teaching him to dance in their living room - he was an awesome dancer - and his first car...an impeccable Cutlass with a deep green fleck metallic finish. We called it the Emerald..the Jewel.

I told him the last time he was back here that I'd see him again under better circumstances...and so I will...WE will.

Donna and Dawn...all our prayers go your way.

“ Donna,
You have our deepest sympathies. I can still remember the day that you and Joe came home from your honeymoon and Mary Beth and I ran out right past you to hug Joe! I still miss our family get togethers at your mom and dad's house, all those hours of card playing! You will be in our thoughts and prayers tomorrow.
Love,
Uncle Paul, Lori, Bucky and Ethan
