“ Joseph,

Chris and I will miss you so much. We will miss your phone calls and visits. You helped us so much with projects around the house or sometimes we just went out to eat and talk. You are now at Home with Grandma, Papa Jake, Osmund, Anne, and Nathan. You were the last connection that I had to Grandma & Papa Jake, whom I miss a lot. Now that you are gone, I feel that my memories are put to rest, too.

I know that you are happy in heaven. I envy you because you get to see God's face and be in his holy presence. Just like the coffee mug I gave you for your birthday, you were the #1 uncle.##imported-begin##Traci Powers##imported-end##

“ Joe, I have truly lost a dear friend. You brightened my day every morning with your smiling face. Like so many other things in life, I took our friendship for granted, thinking that you would always be here to laugh and joke around with. To come in the office this morning and find that you were not here was really heartbreaking for me. I know that you're in a better place now. We have had some great memories, ones that I will always cherish for the rest of my life. You will forever be missed and loved. Your friend

“ To all of Joseph's brothers, sisters, their families, loved ones, and friend's:

We were so saddened to hear of Joseph's passing; he was such a caring, kind, loving, and thoughtful person; it is never easy losing a loved one. We wish we knew the words; we wish we knew the way to ease your hurt a little and cheer your heart today.

We're not sure exactly what to say or what to do..we just know we really care and want you to know that, too. No words can comfort the pain one feels when they have lost a loved one.

Please know that our love, thoughts, and prayers are with you and your family as you face this difficult time of sadness, sorrow, and saying good bye.

Those we love remain a part of us. "Our loved ones leave the world, but never our hearts." You will always remember; you will always love. So much has changed, but so much will always be... Your loved one is part of who you are, of how you see the world...of how you live and give. Those priceless gifts are yours forever.

May God bless and keep all of you during your time of grief. Your mother, Edna, would be so proud of how well you have handled Joseph's funeral, and knowing that Joseph gave his life so that others may live and see through him.

Please know that Joseph is at peace because he has gone home to be with God and his dear mother whom he loved dearly.

With much love and deepest sympathy,

“ I will miss your smiling face and jokes. I am glad I got to see you Christmas Eve before you went to see your Aunts on Christmas Day. I will always treasure the memories of the cookouts, fishing at the big pond, and most of all the visits and talks we had. I will always have a special place in my heart for my Uncle Joseph. “ I had the great honor of knowing and working with Joe for five years. We could fight like cats and dogs one minute, and crack jokes together the next. I am very proud to say he was my friend. Joe and I had alot of great conversations, but the ones I remember most are about country music, our buddy John Wayne and just about life in general. My prayers are with the family and friends. Joe always would tell us at Overhead Door, "Ya'll are gonna miss me when I'm gone!" Joe, you'll never know how much you will be missed by all!###imported-begin###Dennis Gunby###imported-end##
