*Joe was a dear friend of ours at church. He always had a smile and was always so friendly to everyone. We enjoyed going out to lunch after church and eating together with other friends before the pandemic. He will be dearly missed just like his wonderful wife who passed away last year Linda. May God Bless the family and friends who morn his loss. We know God is taking care of Joe in Heaven and he's back with Linda again. Your family is in our prayers.

“ There are very few men who have two wonderful life times in the there lives. Our Uncle Joe was one of them. When we were children he and Aunt Earline were like a second set of parents in our early childhood years. Our families were always together our house or theirs. Daddy and Uncle Joe off fishing and Mom and Aunt Earline tending us kids. Oh how my Uncle Joe and my Dad loved to fish.

As time went by another wonderful lady came into his life our Aunt Linda. They shared so many things together and created a wonderful life for themselves. When he and Aunt Linda would visit in North Carolina he would always visit our Dad at the river where we lived and it was so nice to see them sitting on the dock fishing or at the table in Dad's house looking out at the river talking and reminiscing about family. I so enjoyed his visits down there because it brought back good childhood memories.

Uncle Joe always seemed to know the right thing to do or say if something wasn't right with the world. He was such a kind and caring soul. He was very much loved by his nieces and nephews.

You will be missed so very much but I know you and Dad are sitting on the river bank enjoying the fishing and telling stories.

God Bless.

Love you Uncle Joe.

“ Hey y'all this is Frank I'm sorry I'm not going to be able to make it down, these are trying times and I just can't make it. JUST know that I Love And Miss all of you, I will miss uncle Joe and all the good times we had when we were young. Swimming in cold creek and the big rattlers, the trips to the fireworks store aunt Erlene. It really makes me feel my age . Again sorry I can't be there but I Love Y'all So Much....

“ I always had good memories of Mr. Stutts growing up. Hunting with the beagles (and worried we would nick one), eating oysters that were piled high in his green pick up truck, not to mention his ability to make great home made wine. He always made sure he looked out for his kids and treated us the same as his own family. Great memories!
