“ Sharon and Tony, so sorry to hear Joe's passing. Mother (Barbara Darrow), too, sends her regards, but is unable to handle sending messages this way.

In reading the your Dad's obituary, I discovered something about him I'd never known - that he was an artist. What a splendid gift that is.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family, but it is a comfort to know that he is with his Lord.

“ When ever I think of my Uncle Joe and Aunt Carolyn, I always smile. They have a great sense of humor and my Uncle Joe always made me laugh. My wife Gem and I were so fortunate to have spent a lovely afternoon with them about a year ago. I really enjoyed being in their home and seeing all of my Uncle Joe’s paintings and hearing my Aunt Carolyn tell us about what all the “kids” were doing. Words can never express the sorrow that I feel in knowing that he has left us. But I have the hope, the joy and the blessed assurance that I will see him again through the glorious finished work of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I will always love you, Uncle Joe and Aunt Carolyn.##imported-begin##Brian Skinner##imported-end##

“ One of my fondest memories of being welcomed into the Skinner family was my visit to Augusta. I was on business, but gave my "new aunt & uncle" an introduction call. Within hours I was not only taken to dinner but welcomed into your home and heart; spending a wonderful evening learning about the family and getting to know you. I will always remember that evening and the love I felt from two individuals who were strangers for only a moment, family for a lifetime. Uncle Joe will be missed, but never forgotten.##imported-begin##Gem Skinner##imported-end##

“ Miss Carolyn,

Mr. Joe was one of Mike's first customers when he started into the computer field i 1993. Mike always enjoyed the time he spent with Mr. Joe. I didn't get to meet him until 2000, and each and every time he always had a ready smile. I always enjoyed seeing his artwork, and he ecouraged me to keep working on mine.

Mike and I both have lost a very special friend in Mr. Joe. You are in our thoughts and prayers, and if we can do anything t help, please let us know.##imported-begin##Mike and Kathleen McGahee##imported-end##
