“ Grammy Joyce was a wonderful "mom". She was married to my dad for over 31 years and never did she make me feel like a step child. She welcomed my sisters, my brother and our spouses, children and grandchildren into her arms with love and grace, the epitome of a "southern lady". She will be sorely missed until the Lord decides we should meet again. Godspeed to my dad and all of his "kids". With love....John and DiAnna Dukes.

“ The sweetest most amazing grandmother ! My entire family can agree with me on that. I remember when I was a little girl and we would always go to her house ..I never wanted to leave her side, and to this day I still don't. Her and my grandpa were married 32 years..and I know by the look on my grandpas face I knew they were in love! I know she's in heaven, with an amazing God..and shes not huting any longer but I sure do miss her! But I will see her again and I can't wait. I love my grammy joyce!
