“ Judy and Gordon were faithful members of Grace for years. They volunteered and organized the Red Cross blood mobile for many years and made sure the blood was donated by many people. They raised their children to also be outstanding citizens of North Augusta. Judy never met a stranger and was a special friend to many. Heaven has a new Angel.

“ Judy (and her husband Gordon) were two of the first members of Grace UMC when I moved here as a young bride in 1976. Judy was so sweet, beautiful, fun, and easy to be around. She made this world, especially North Augusta, a better place for having lived among us. God bless her precious soul. Janis Collins
