“ My thoughts and prayers are with you Ruthie, Kay. And the entire family. Ruthie, Kay you both know that I love you very much always have just as if you were one of my own. I'm so sorry that I couldn't be there during your time of need, but my heart has been with you every step of the way, and it will be with you today more than ever. I just wont you both to stay strong to day and remember that she is in a better place now. Love you both.

“ What do you say at a time like this when your heart is so sadden with grief and the appropriate words just wont seem to come. All I can say is thank you for coming into my life and being one of the best and dearest friends I have ever had all this years, and thank you for being there for me back in the day even when know one else would, I never called on you once that you weren't there for me even if it was just with kind words, but we both know that most of the time it was way more than that. I will always love and miss you.

You have gone on now to be with your maker where there is no more suffering and pain and knowing that part does help ease the pain of losing you, because I know that one day we will meet again in a much better place, until then you will always be in my heart. Thank you for being a part of my life.
