“ Aunt Kaye was Kaye to me❤️. She was my first babysitter. She was the one who would always play with me. She was my very fun and nice Aunt😎. When my Aunt Kaye got to be a teenager, she remained my friend. Grandma and Grandpa Hostetler built a house on the hill behind our house. Kaye continued to play with me and babysit my sister, my brother and me. She was so nice and kind. We had lots of fun times! Eventually, Kaye became a teenager. She still babysat us, but she also began having friends over to play pool and play games. At some point, she met Uncle Steve. They fell in love. They really liked each other❤️❤️ a lot.❤️❤️❤️❤️ They got married and lived in a trailer and had a daughter they dearly loved —Connie!!!!😘 Then, they had a new baby boy too, Pete!!!! In a few years Steve got a job selling appliances, and he did so well, they moved to New York!!!! He did VERY well at his job selling tires!!!! He moved several times, and every time he got a promotion!!!! Steve and Kaye loved each other very much, and they loved Connie and Pete the most!!!! Kaye loved her children sooo much, but one other thing she truly loved was God!!!!🙏🙏🙏🙏. She became a prayer warrior..... and i know Kaye and Steve continue to lift up their children and grandchildren to the Lord today as well❤️. Until we meet again! We love you both, Kaye and Steve —until we meet again🙏🙏🙏🙏❤️
