“ You all, wife and sisters, have my empathy. It is not easy to lose a husband and the relationship you have with him. The loss of a close sibling is equally painful. The road will be rough for the next few months, but can be eased greatly through prayer and trust in our Creator. You all have been, and will continue to be, in my thoughts. Take care of one another and God Bless each of you.##imported-begin##Phyllis T Horry##imported-end##

“ O'Nealia,

I was so sorry to hear about Ken. You and your family are in my prayers. I'm so sorry I won't be able to attend the funeral due to another commitment. Please let me know if there's anything I can do.

“ O'Nealia I am sorry to hear about your lost. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during your time grievance. I want you to know even though I have only met your husband once, it was perfect timing. During our Christmas dinner I was a little worried about not fitting in, but I remember him saying "he was not dressing up and he was coming as he was." When I sat at the table near you & Ken, all worries went away. I love you all. God bless.##imported-begin##Martine##imported-end##

“ Sharon: We are very sorry to hear of your brother's death. Pam and I both know what his widow is about to go through, having already been down that painful street. Although we never met her, our prayers are certainly with her. Our thoughts are also with you. Let us know if we can do anything for you.

“ Most Gracious Father,please surround O'Nelia with Your compassion and Your tender mercies,right now.Be her strength and her Strong Tower and her very present help in time of trouble.This is a hard time for her right now,Lord,so give her Your peace with all she must go through and give her an added amount of strength for all those things she must take care of in the coming days.Uplift her with Your righteous right hand and remind her that she is loved by so many.
Grant her peace Dear Father and a trust that You will carry her through these difficult days.I ask these things in Your Sovereign name,amen.....##imported-begin##Becky Lock##imported-end##
