“ KIMBERLY'S JOURNEY

*Life, even if we live to be 100,
Is a very short flight,
Just a resting place along the road,
On our journey to His eternal light.*

*A pause in what is to be,
We each have a different journey,
A different path along the way,
But just a short resting place...
Never meant to stay...*

*For some life's journey is quick,
For some the journey is slow.
Her flight is to a place,
Where only angels know.*

*She loved life, lived life,
And gave Destiny life.
She made us laugh, cry and smile,
On her stop along the way,
She was a loan from God,
Never meant to stay...*

*When our journey finally ends,
And we claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Standing arm in arm with Kimberly,
In the presence of our Lord.*

“ Dear Family, so sorry to hear about your loss. I didn't personally know Kimberly but she had just moved in 2 doors down from me on 4th St. Ext. My son Josh Stephens knew her. I will keep you in my prayers. For her parents, pray for God to give you peace and comfort and he will. I am a bereaved parent also and have a support group that I go to for Bereaved Parents. If you would like I can send you some info on this and we have a monthly newsletter that I can have them mail to you. You can reach me at 803 471-3097. I will be glad to share some of my grief literature with you. Take care and God Bless and keep you all. Dale Stephens##imported-begin##Dale Stephens##imported-end##

“ I must say that this came as a shock to me from Kimberly's friend, Delilah. I met Kim at the Subway store in Jackson, SC. Every time I would stop there, on my way home from Savannah River Site, she, as well as the other young ladies that work there, would greet me with a smile and a laugh. Kim had a outgoing personality that would have anybody to come back either to buy a sandwich or to just stop and say hello. I was glad to meet Kim and her father at one of the gas stations in Jackson. We really had a wonderful time fellowshiping with each other. I last ran into Kim at Reids grocery store in New Ellenton. I finally got a chance to see her beautiful baby, and the joy that emanated from a mother's heart. We started talking about life in general. I told Kim that night that "sometimes life appears complicated and things that do happen in life seem so unfair; you just continue to Trust the Lord with all of your heart and lean not to your own understanding; and in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your paths." She never had an opportunity to hear me preach, but I believe that night, she did. I went on to ask her if the Lord would call her home, would she be ready? She said an emphatic, YES!!! I believe that her heart was right with the Lord and that Jesus is her Lord and her Savior. As a "Subway" friend, I'm gonna really miss her saying to me every time I would walk in the Subway store, "THERE'S MY FAVORITE CUSTOMER." To the husband and family of Kimberly Simmerman, may the Lord bless you and keep you during this time of loss. Be of good cheer, Jesus said " He is the resurrection and the Life." Kim is not among the "spiritually" dead but among the Living. God bless you, Tarrance##imported-begin##Minister Tarrance Jones, DD##imported-end##
