“ Mac was a great man and he will be missed dearly. I remember growing up just a couple houses down from him. Always out in the yard doing something. My PaPa and him would stand outside for hours and talk about Gardening. He was a very special man to a lot of people and touched so many lives. Praying for the family.

Mack, I'll always remember your dad coming to all the ballgames with my dad and cheering on the team, both football and basketball. He was such a good man and I know you all will miss him dearly. He is with your mom now and probably happier than he has been in a long time. God will take real good care of him so you won't have to worry anymore. My prayers are with you, Iris and Carol.

“ Our thoughts are with your family. Kenneth has fond memories of growing up with Mack in Old Ellenton - and of all their ballgame days! We love you all so much, and lifting you up in our prayers today and always. God bless you with peace knowing this faithful servant has gone home to Heaven - and now walks with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We will see you Saturday.
