“ I always loved and respected Larry, from the moment I met him at Georgia Southern. He was whip smart, musically talented, a lover of kitty cats and he, of course, loved his family. I miss you my old friend and hope your spirit runs free and at ease.

“ I only knew Larry about 20 yrs. at CVA. He was a great nuclear tech and loved being busy. He would tell me he was "Busier than a one-armed man hanging wallpaper" or "Working harder than a one-legged man in an ass kicking contest." Larry, I hope you found the peace in your heart you were searching for. You will be missed!
