“ I met Lawrence when he was 17. He was my friends young cousin. As the years passed we became friends. We had so many common interests. Hunting, fishing, fine wines, spirits and cigars, history, politics, were but a few things we discussed when we got together or spoke on the phone. There are so many memories and so many unfulfilled plans. He was, simply, the finest man of his generation I knew. He was take from us in the prime of his life. I will never have another friend like Lawrence. He will be sorely missed not just by me but by so many others. Rest in Peace, my friend.

This photo Mom found of Jeanine and Lawrence when he was about 7 or 8 and receiving possibly his first toy shot gun. I'm sorry that it didn't seem to upload well, but here is a link to it: http://a8.sphotos.ak.fbcdn.net/hphotos-ash4/377856_10150459724641247_604431246_8827389_208207075_n.

“ Tence TThomas I. Moore grew up with my sons. I had the pleasure of coaching Lawrence in recreation football. He was always positive, witty, and very respectful of others. I was always so impressed with the love of family Lawrence, his mother, brothers, and aunt continuously reflected. My family is so saddened for the loss of Lawrence. Our prayers are that "The Great Comforter" will sustain Lawrence's family.

“ One day in college, I was making the long trek from five points back to my dorm (feeling particularly down that day, can't remember why...) when Law drove by (I believe he had a Camaro at the time), and turned around and offered to give me a ride home. It was so sweet of him, and he happened upon me at just the right time. I was so thankful...and I always will be that I have that memory of him. Law, I hope there was a shiny car waiting for you as you began your journey, with a kind person behind the wheel offering to give you a lift.
Rest in Peace.

“ Lawrence was a great guy. He took me to the Masters once in the pouring rain, and never complained once. He was quite a gentleman, and had a wonderful sense of humor. My prayers are with his family and friends.
