“ Dear Ann,

We cannot put into words how we are feeling right now and there are no words that can tell you how much we are hurting for you. I cannot imagine how it would tear my heart out to lose a child. We love you and Sam so much. Doug still misses Sam and talks of him often. He was so looking forward to retirement with him. Our prayers are with you and only the Lord can comfort you and bring you through this dark, dark place. We didn't know David but we remember when he came and took our neice to the concert when they were kids. From the guestbook I can see that he was a very giving and loving and happy person and will be greatly missed. Please know that we love you and we are hurting for you and we are praying for you. God be with you and all of your family. Love and prayers, Dolly and Doug Bohler##imported-begin##Dolly and Doug Bohler##imported-end##

“ Andrew and Family,

David will be missed greatly by all, he had many friends all over town and would never pass up a chance to stop, smile, and talk. He always had a smile on his face, and cared deeply about how others were feeling. He was very proud of his family, especially you Andrew and talked highly of your achievements, especially the recent Soccer triumphs.

The Augusta Disc Golf Association sends their condolences, we will miss him out on the course. I will miss seeing him almost every night i worked, walking the downtown strip.....##imported-begin##Jason Allind##imported-end##
