Mrs. Pearce was a native of Pikeville, N.C., having made Portsmouth, Va., her residence much of her adult life. She moved to Aiken, South Carolina to live with her daughter in 2008. Mrs. Pearce spent her 87 years making life better for those around her. She worked when most women didn't, but she never lost sight of her goal – to make a comfortable home for her husband and daughter. MeMo loved her family, her friends and her church, serving as a Sunday School teacher to preschoolers and singing soprano in the choir at Fairview Heights Baptist Church for many years. She was a long-time member of the South Loxley Place Garden Club.

Survivors include one daughter and her husband, Phyllis P. and Thomas E. Britt of Aiken; three grandchildren, C.P. “ Dear Cousin,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
We loved Marvin very much. Donnie even contacted Glenelle Bryant as soon as he heard the news.
And, of course, Ruby adored her through the good times and the bad, and God knows they went through some difficult times as they matured into the wonderful women they became.
Have a safe trip to Portsmouth. I look forward to seeing you all, though I wish it was under happier circumstances.
Love,
The L.A.Price Family - Ruby, Donnie and Ricky
