“ Brother Sarbin was my Sunday School teacher in high school. We were rotten kids. He was so patient. He was a kind, caring and humble man. He was also happy to see me. He would tell me I was always his favorite and Sharon would back up that statement. I am so happy he will be with his beloved Sharon.

“ Well, I guess Sharon and Leonard are just not meant to be apart. You can't speak of one without including the other. They were joined at the hip! A very faithful couple in the Church. As their former bishop, I could go to Leonard or Sharon, usually both to get help for others within the North Augusta Ward. I really admired the Sarbins' faithfulness.

“ I remember well the day the Sabrina's walked into our small branch in Aiken S.C. We were so small then and it was a blessing each time a member came in to help us grow. Sharron always had a bigger than life smile. And Leonard ready as always to help others. We all became fast friends. One Sunday right after sacrament and settle in some of the men fall asleep during services and you knew who was who in the way they snored. Mr Herron third row let's out such loud snores then Leonard back pew would answer right back louder like they were secretly talking to each other. Little things in life makes great memories. Leonard will be missed by all who knew him I am blessed to have known the Sarbin Family. Brenda Reyes
