“ We are so sorry to hear about Lewis. Lewis built our house back in 1976 and has been a dear friend ever since. We are sorry that we were not aware of his passing until now. Rodger just recently was released from the hospital and is home trying to recover from a fractured hip. Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you as you endure the days to come. We will miss that smiling face. We will miss that friendship. Lewis was a good man and he will be missed.

My thoughts and prayers are with the family of Mr. Hadden. The first house I bought was one Mr. Hadden had built and it was across the street from his son Alan and his wife Jean. They were such good friends while they were my neighbor and his mother and father were such nice people. I know Mr. Hadden will be missed. Would love to talk to Jean and Alan again. I am in the same place (803)441-3935 if ever they have time to call. God bless you all. Love, Martha and Brie Johnson

Lewis Hadden was a wonderful man. I bought my first home from him and he has been a friend and customer of our bank for many years. The world is a lot smaller without him in it. I know he is with his saviour. Lewis you will be missed.

“ Peace in Time of Sorrow

By Karen Sturgill

*It's a time when life seems at its worst
When some would find only hopelessness and despair,
But in you I will trust and I will not curse
For I know in times of trouble you will always be there*

*You are my God, my strength, my life, my Lord
And no matter the results of this situation,
I know that you will wrap me in your arms of love
And bring me great strength and salvation*

*You are always there, you are kind and true
I rely on your Word: I know your love will never cease,
And when my life is full of sorrow and I feel blue
I turn to you to find the comfort of real peace*

*So thank you God for your love and strength
And the courage to stand strong in my time of sorrow,
Bless me Lord that this time may be short of length
And renew my hope for a future of bright tomorrows*

“ This world has lost a good and Godly man and heaven has gained a beautiful angel. My employer for many years who was like a father to me. I have loved him and his family like my own for just as long. Rest in peace Lewis. My boss, my mentor and my friend. My life has and will be forever changed because of you. You will truly be missed! Erma and family I will always be here for you and I love you all!
