I don't even know where to start. Lexie was like a second mom to me. There's not much of my life that Lexi wasn't in it. She was the sweetest lady and would do anything for anybody. My moms best friend . My parents and Lexie and Carlton were inseparable. Lexie can now be our shining star or glorious guardian angel. She is going to be greatly missed and I'm not sure what my mom will do without her. Much love and prayers to all . Love Michelle Roy Rohrbach

“ We have such fond memories of Lexie and her late husband Carlton when we were all members of the Chatterbox Club. When Carlton served as President of the group, Lexie was his capable and very caring "First Lady". She was so good at remembering all of the special occasions of the members and always going the extra mile to see that they were remembered. So many lives were touched by her loving spirit and beautiful smile during the time we knew her, and I can only imagine how many, many people she touched beyond what we knew. She was one of those people who kept up with her "old friends", and we will certainly miss her phone calls to check on us. Our love and prayers are with her precious family - she loved all of you so much!

“ There are no words to explain or express my love & connection to the entire BONHAM family.

They are all my extended family. So many memories & such close connections.

My heart is  & days ahead will be so hard for me not having my best Bud every day. Friends since about 1965 we have cried together,, traveled many miles together that I will always treasure.

See you another day. My friend. I love you

“ She will be missed by so many . She was a great lady loving wife mother grandmother great grand mother friend . And a amazing cook . Always enjoyed talking to her had lots of laughs and some sad times but she always wanted everyone happy. But the only thing I'm not sad for her because this lady missed her husband every day and I know he was waiting there to welcome her in there eternal home together for ever .And we will see her again . Love ya leslie

She brought happiness to everyone she encountered. Her smile and laugh was so contagious. Lexi and my mom became dear friends many years ago when they worked at Revco together. Sending hugs and prayers to her family. Doody Snyder

It's very rare that someone comes along in your life and becomes an amazing friend that you enjoy and talk with about everything that's genuine. Truly I will miss my friend Lexi's many phone conversations about our spouses and families over the years. She will always be remembered as a ray of sunshine in my heart, now that her soul is finally at rest in that permanent home with the love of her life. Prayers to you the family for such beauty to behold.
