“ DEZI AND ELLA,
I am so very sorry about your mom and i am also sorry for typing this so late.I know i never met her but from knowing you she was a wonderful person.I remember when we just talked talk and i asked about your mom to see if she was okay.You should know she is better and no longer in pain.You think it's bad now just wait till later it gets worse like when you get to drive or prom or just parties.But i will be here for you whenever you need me or just anybody to talk to.You can let it all out when you talk to me.I cant imagine what you'r going through but you will be able to you are strong and a brave girl.You'r mom misses you and i know you miss her and i know it's hard not to cry but please try.I just can't wait till you get back i am going to hug you forever and probably cry a little.Just relaize she is no longer in pain or scared of death neither are you!!

*You'r friend,

“ Page Family,

My Daughter Clare is in Ella's class and are good friends. We were so deeply saddened by the news on Lezleigh's passing. I have only met Lezleigh once at Open House for the 2010-2011 school year but in those 15 minutes I spent talking w/her was such a joy. She had a beautiful and caring spirit about her and was so friendly. We actually had one thing in commom - we both shared the same name but spelled it differently - that was our conversation starter and we began to laugh.

Please know that we are going to keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Lezleigh has now received her "angel wings" and is looking down on all of you. Ella and Dezi, you are never alone... your mom is now resting peacefully in heaven and she is truly your guardian angel.

“ Dezirai,

We are so very sorry about the loss of your mother. We are always here for you if you need to talk. If it's any comfort to you, your mom is waiting for your arrival in heaven one day. Your seat is empty in class today, and so are our hearts as we think of you and mourn your loss. Please know that everything will get better in time.

“ I had only met Lezleigh a couple of times when my daughter(Maggie) spent the night with Dezi but, she was such a friendly, open person. I do know she was a wonderful mother to those beautiful girls. I was very sad to hear of her passing but I know she is in a better place where she won't have the struggles she had here. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

“ I will always rermember the fun and loving and caring times we had together. She was a great person and awsome and loving mom. I will always know that she is in still here but we cant see her. At least she is in a better place now where she is whole inside and out. I loved my mom(lezleigh) then and now even though she is dead.

“ I was saddened to read about the loss of your loved one. It reminded me of losing my Grandmother a few years ago. There are no words to describe such pain. I know of a brochure that gave me much comfort when I was in pain and I can get you a copy if you wish. It's called "When Someone You Love Dies". Then, maybe you can find some comfort and some answers from the Bible, after all, 2 Cor. 1:3 says in part: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort ....". If you would like a copy of the brochure, you can email me at tmmillard@yahoo.com and I will mail it to you free of charge.

“ I will always remembr all of the fun times we had together. The one that sticks out the most is our road trip to Nevada.

Armed with a bag of chips, a 1 liter bottle of soda and 2 bags of energy pills each we set off from Klamath Falls headed to Battle Mountain, NV for a weekend party that they were having. Paul and his bnd, Desperado, were the entertainment for the weekend. We had so much fun with area 52 in the high desert, the rock town we seen in the mountains and Lezleigh carrying on a full conversation with the wild doneys. I swear she told them her whole life story just so I coud get pictures of them. We had a blast!!!

Love you forever and miss you even longer my friend!!!

“ Lezleigh....the light of some many peoples life. Beautiful in every sense of the word. Dedicated wife and mother...she always made sure the family was cared for before herself. She was involved with the kids school, and in church. I love you Lezleigh!!! I know your shining face is smiling down at us. "Til we meet again!
