“ I met Lloyd at work (Gerald Jones Honda) some 8 years ago or so, He had been a childhood friend of my GrandDaddy (Jimmy Johnson). They grew up in Pinch Gut together. He reminded me so much of my GrandDad, Always cuttin' up & telling tall tails. Lloyd & I lost touch after we both left Gerald Jones. A few years later, My GrandDad passed away & I just happened to run into Lloyd on facebook. I sent him a message asking for ANY old stories he may have about GrandDaddy & BOY, did he! Stories, newspaper articles & lots of laughs is what Lloyd gave me! Lloyd helped me cope w/ the loss of my GrandDad & became one of my Dearest friends. I will always cherish the great stories Lloyd shared w/ me about Pinch Gut & Frog Holler & the way life use to be way back when. I will FOREVER carry those stories w/ me & will pass them on to all my future generations. Lloyd has been such a Blessing in my life & a GREAT friend.

A few months ago, Lloyd stopped by my work & gave me a hat that my GrandDad had given to him. GrandDaddy had signed the hat w/ his name & old racecar number on it. I tried to refuse the gift but Lloyd said he wanted to make sure that the hat went to someone who would forever cherish it. I had no idea then how much that simple little gift would mean to me. It is now one of my most sentimental possessions. It reminds me of my GrandDad & of Lloyd.

Lloyd's passing is so heartbreaking to me. I feel I have lost, not only a dear friend, but another GrandDad. He helped fill a void & helped me through such a difficult time in my life. I will NEVER forget Mr. Lloyd Creech. Rest in Peace, Lloyd. You are truly missed.

I recently heard a quote that I keep repeating to myself. I hope that it may help those that were closest to him....

"Dont be sad that it is over, be happy that it happened"

“ Dear Lynn,

My thoughts and prayers are with you. Please let me know if there's anything I can do for you or your family. When dad died, my uncle shared some wisdom with me that I would like to pass on to you. "Isn't it interesting that when you are born, you cry and the world laughs. And when you die, you laugh and the world cries." Mr. Lloyd is laughing now. May God's peace and love surround you now. Much love, Amelia

“ I had met Lloyd on Facebook on a group about Augusta, GA which was my hometown where I grew up. He was a wonderful person with so much wonderful knowledge of the Augusta area, and also baseball players that got their start in Augusta and went on to the Major League baseball. He was a joy to talk to and once you knew him it was like you felt you knew him all your life. He was that kind of person. Kind, thoughtful, sincere. A true hometown friend that will be sorely missed. He seemed like a big brother to me. The group on Facebook "You know you're from Augusta if..." will not be the same without him, he had so much wonderful knowledge of the Augusta area and events while many of us were growing up there. I will sorely miss you my dear friend, my sincere sympathies to his wife and family. God bless you all.
