“ I was so very fond of you and Joyce. I first met you when I worked at the Big H in 1971. I had no idea you were gone. It seems like yesterday we were chatting. God be with your family.

“ I remember all the good times we all had growing up together, hanging out by the pool, sitting at Dad's station during Fireworks season, being in the parade and all of a sudden, he would yell out "Hey Turkey Butt". He was a great man and will be missed by so many. My thought and prayers are with the family at this difficult time.

“ Gary was a tough supervisor. But a fair one.
I didnt think he liked me at all. I was still under my 90 days and could have been fired for any reason at this point but I just couldnt understand why he rode my back so hard. So I decided we needed to talk and found a shop Stewart to go in the office with me to confront Gary about it.

I proceed to gripe complain and just tell it how I saw it. He's looking at me like I'd lost my mind. Which I probably had. I had just turned 18 hadnt been there 90 days yet and I was upset. After I said my peace I said. I know you dont like me and i really dont care I just want you to treat me like everyone else.

I swear he almost started laughing.

He said why do you think I dont like you. Of course its obvious you dont you expect me to be perfect you dont fuss at no one else like you do me.

He said Rose we had to make you quit and hour early your first night at work to keep you from making production. You was qualified by your second week. I know you dont like the job you're on now. And I've seen good workers go on jobs they didnt like and they changed.

He said I just want to keep the fire under your arse so you wl continue go be the best employer you can be because I see potential in you.

I tell you I about busted into tears when he said that. Here I thought he didnt like me was why he gave me a hard time. Yeah right Gary Hitt , lol he liked giving me a hard time. But it did make me want to try to be the best I could be regardless.

He really helped raise me in that plant and had a big part in who I became as I got older. He would tell me, oh girl you're still wet behind the ears. Oh yeah that got to me too.

I love you Gary you will never be forgotten. Thank you for all the years.

“ I worked with Gary for many years, he helped me understand how the company worked when it came to working in Management. I considered him to be one of the few honest people I ever met in my life. He is a better place. Jimmy Bowick.

My brother and I had known Gary and Joyce for many years, when we were growing up. We all like going to the skating rink on Ga. Ave and having a good time. He was always the nicest person and could make you laugh. After some years between friendships and the loss of my Brother, we connected again through the Carolina Jamboree and our friendship started up again. Use to love to talk to him about our past life in NA.

I am so sorry to hear of his passing, but I know he is in Heaven helping someone else along the way. My deepest sympathy to his family.

Always enjoyed talking to him at the baseball fields for years. When baseball was over for me I would see him around and then we talked fishing. He was a good man and enjoyed conversations with him.
