“ Pat - it was with great shock that I read of the loss of Louis. I will always remember him as a most pleasant person to work with. And though we seldom met in recent years, I've always regarded him as a good friend. He will be missed by many. May God bless all who mourn his passing.###imported-begin##Gerald Levy###imported-end##

“ Cindy and I send our condolences to Pat and all the members of Louie's family, and will include all of you in our daily prayers during this difficult time.

Louis and I shared many moments of good humor during the years we worked together at WRDW.

He will certainly remain in the memories of the many people who met him during his broadcasting career. He was one of a kind.
