

M. Anne Fulghum

January 17, 1943 - July 14, 2024

North Augusta, SC – Funeral Services for Mrs. Anne Fulghum, 81, who entered into rest July 14, 2024, will be conducted Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the Posey Funeral Chapel with Rev. Dave Vosseller officiating. Interment will follow in Sunset Hill Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the funeral home Wednesday evening from 6 until 8 o'clock.

Anne was born January 17, 1943, to the late Earl Woodrow Blevins, Sr. and Vivian Hellmuth Blevins. Anne was raised in North Augusta and attended North Augusta High School before marrying her sweetheart, the late Capt. Joseph T. Fulghum. Following their marriage, Anne faithfully supported her family and her husband throughout his extensive military career in the U.S. Air Force. His military service took their family from Florida, to Montana, to Alaska, and eventually settled back in North Augusta. Anne graduated from Great Falls College in Montana and later received her master's degree from Augusta College. She enjoyed a fulfilling career as an English teacher and retired from North Augusta High School with 20 years of service. Anne loved teaching and mentoring her students. Imparting her knowledge to them was a great passion of hers. She enjoyed crafting, quilting, gardening, and was known for her green thumb. Anne's greatest joy in life was her family, with traveling and family cruises being some of her fondest memories.

In addition to her husband and parents, Anne was preceded in death by her

Pallbearers will be Jim Sommers, Wesley Fulghum, Mark Inouye, and Dr. Jim Denmark.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Wounded Warrior Project, www.woundedwarriorproject.org

“ I first had Ms. Fulghum for 7th grade English...she brought my love of reading back with her start of class by reading Where the Redfern Grows. It was an incredible book and her love of reading to the class was felt, deeply felt and restored by love of reading. I'm forever grateful for the impact she made on my life and have to correct verbs that are in the wrong tense 😊 Thank you for being such an incredible educator!!!

“ So saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. Fulghum. I grew up in front of her very eyes helping to maintain her yard alongside my father. I will cherish the many cups of homemade hot chocolate we had together while we chatted about my future. While I never saw her again upon graduating high school and moving away for college she left such a big impression on me that I never failed to think about her at random moments over the years. May she rest in peace and know the impact she made in my life as a child is still felt today as an adult. ❤️

“ Had her in English at NAJH a great teacher helped me a lot to understand some things. Loved her reading time Rest In Peace. If I'm not mistaken she had us write a letter to ourselves about where we wanted to be in 10 years my family thought I was crazy but she mailed it 10 years later 🤔

I didn't know her, but something drew me to look at her obit and I feel like this beautiful woman will be standing by those gates as a beautiful greeter when entering heaven. How beautiful a tribute this is. My heart is full of sadness for her loved ones she leaves but also I feel so much love that she's passed on to you all. God bless you all.

“ Just found out one of my most favorite teachers ever died. Anne Fulghum was my 7th grade English teacher. The first day of class she just started reading Where The Red Fern Grows to us. We were mesmerized by this teacher who read to us and how we loved listening to Ms. Fulghum read a chapter every day. Once I moved to Kalispell, Ms Fulghum shared with me her memories of Montana and I shared with her our new adventures. Had thought of her recently and realized she hasn't posted in well. I am so glad you were part of my life Mrs. Fulghum!
