“ Janet, I worked with your mother for many years at Georgetown Memorial Hospital and I have many fond memories of her and her work ethic. I used to hear stories about you and your invisible friend. I hadn't thought much of those years until I read in the Times of Mable's death. I just retired from Dr. Varn's office last year. I remember you as a young pretty teenager. I pray that God will bless you with peace and your heart will soon begin to mend. I know you will miss her for there's nothing that can replace a mothers love. Please know that you're in my thoughts and prayers. With deepest sympathy, Harriette Davis###imported-begin###Harriette McConnell Davis###imported-end###
