

Madilyn Brooke Willingham

May 23, 2013 - May 26, 2023

Jackson, SC – A Celebration of Life for Madilyn Brooke Willingham, 10, who entered into rest May 26, 2023, will be held at Jackson Youth Sports Football Field (located behind Jackson Middle School) Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock, Rev. Brad Jay and Rev. Brian Henderson officiating. Private interment will take place in Jackson Memorial Park. To honor Madilyn's life, the family asks you to wear attire suitable for a ten-year-olds birthday party. Additionally, please bring a balloon to be released at the conclusion of Madilyn's celebration. The casket will lie in state at the Jackson Youth Sports Football Field Tuesday beginning at 4:00 PM until 4:45 PM for children and friends of Madilyn to paint and decorate her casket to celebrate her artistic and crafty nature.

Madilyn was born May 23, 2013, in Augusta, GA. She just completed the fourth grade at South Aiken Baptist School. Madilyn was one of a kind, witty, never met a stranger; everyone who met her loved her. She loved rainbows and unicorns and all things crafty including making her own lip balm, slime and hair dye.

Survivors include her parents, Jordan and Crissy Willingham; sister, Alana Kate Henderson; brother, Tres Henderson; grandparents, Teresa and Ray Morris, Keith and Michele Willingham, Lynn and Daniel Linder, Tracy and Karen Johnson; great-grandparents, Rock and Tonya Willingham and Miriam Johnson; aunts and uncles, Haley and Chad Freeman, Morgan and Matt

Blackburn and a host of cousins.

Pallbearers will be JC Greene, Adam Sullivan, Josh Stephens, Speedy Baughman, Tyler Rowe, Bradley Frye, Jeffrey Goff and Rhett Widener

Memorials may be made to BRICKMISSIONS.com

So hard to watch as I consider Jordan to be one of the best if not the best dad I know to his girls. Crissy is by far one of the best moms and always took extra care of her daughters! Jesus Jesus precious Jesus please be with Jordan and Crissy as they fight the good fight glorifying you even in the darkest nights. It is a short time and we will be there! Why why we will never understand but a peace that passes all understanding will come to Jordan and Crissy. You will see them out and about and think man how are they doing this....It is Jesus and only Jesus who gets us through. Some people say God doesn't give you anything you can't handle. God allows things to happen and we indeed can't handle it on our own. It is through Christ only that joy will come one morning. Lord Jesus I pray that you give Jordan and Crissy strength through the nights and mornings and songs and events to come. Let them know that you WILL never leave or forsake them. Many times we feels so alone but grant them grace that they may see the subtle signs and songs that come in that remind them of Madilyn. Soon and very soon we will be with you....Lord Jesus just please help us as we fight to get there!

“ I met Madilyn at SABCS this past school year as a substitute teacher for her 4th grade class. Madilyn is a sweet girl who would always speak to me whenever she saw me around campus. In Bible class she would always raise her hand to answer my questions to the class about salvation or, any of the Bible accounts we were discussing. I knew for sure that she understood what it meant to be saved. I know I will see her again one day. Dawn Simmons

“ The first time I met Madilyn, she was a new born, riding through Jtown, with her blessed parents on the family golf cart. She was the most beautiful baby girl, and even then sweetness radiated from her. Over the last 10 years, I'd see her around, at the Buckhead or church things, she was always filled with such JOY. I called her "HotMess", not because she was naughty, but because she was so hilariously fun! I saw her sing her solo at FBCs Christmas Cantata 2022, she loved to sing for her Jesus. I saw her Sunday May 21, at a baby shower. I hugged her and said " I love you Madi, keep singing for Jesus" . She smiled so sweetly at me and said " I love you too, I will, I promise". She always let her "Light" shine so bright. Heartfelt prayers for Jordan/Crissy, Tres, AlainaKate, all her grandparents, aunts, uncles and extended family. Until Jesus comes.. Kimberly Huckeba

I know losing a child is one of the hardest things a parent and family and I pray that God will give you peace you need that he will comfort you and that he will strengthen you during this time and afterwards. Keith Rock Tonya, I will continue to pray for your family and The grieving that you will go through and just know that God will be right there with you. We don't ever know the plan God has for us or our family and when we lose a child I have seen it through my mom it is the most painful time of your life and I pray that you will call up on friends or family when you are at your lowest and they will be there I am positive to support you. I can't even imagine what you're going through but I will be praying.*

“ Dear family,
I moved here last year in July. I was so nervous because I didn't know what to do. Then God called me to South Aiken Baptist Christian School. That's where I met set Madi. I work carline everyday so I'm the first teacher along with other teachers the kids see everyday. Every time I would see Madi I would tell her Goodmorning. She would get upset if I didn't greet her with a Goodmorning and a hug. Then I would see her in Art class on Fridays. So artistic. She always had to let me know how awesome of an art teacher I am and she was so happy that I came to her school. She always found a way to make me smile. I will never forget this precious soul. Thank you Madi for the moments shared. Love you forever sweet girl. -Ms. Keyana
