

Margaret Ann Ligon Scott

January 23, 1942 - February 23, 2026

Margaret Ann Scott entered into rest February 23, 2026 in her home following a long illness. Born January 23, 1942 in Kingsport, TN, her family moved to Augusta where her father was employed with Westinghouse. After graduating from The Academy of Richmond County in 1958, she married James Wesley Scott and raised three children she adored. She was a wonderful homemaker, wife, mother and great cook. Ann also worked with James at Scott's Meat Packers and Timberlake Properties. They were a great team for 66 years.

Ann was a long-time member of Burns Memorial United Methodist Church and the Latane Kirkley Circle. She loved these ladies and cherished their friendships, remaining deeply grateful that they never forgot her after she became homebound.

Ann's biggest joy was her children. She devoted her life to her children. Ann's home was always the place for family gatherings and a good meal or snack. She always had an ear to listen. She was a good friend to many.

Ann is survived by her children, Melanie Scott, Wesley Scott (Sandra), and Jeff Scott (Angie); grandchildren, Logan McElmurray (Nyci), Cody McElmurray (Brittany), and Shelby Scott; four great grandchildren; sister Eileen Ladiero (Mike); sister-in-law Ruthie Ligon; sister-in-law Cleo Shields (Tim); and brother-in-law Milton Scott (Sarah).

Ann was preceded in death by her husband James Scott, her parents John and Frances Ligon and her brother Robert Ligon.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Burns Memorial United Methodist Church, 2372 Lumpkin Road, Augusta, Georgia 30906.

A private service will be held by the family.
