

Margaret L. Snook

December 15, 1923 - May 17, 2013

On Friday, May 17, 2013 Margaret Louise (McArthy)Snook passed away peacefully and with grace at Trinity Hospital in Augusta, Georgia. Margaret was born December 15, 1923 in Normal, Illinois. Margaret graduated from Illinois State University and after graduation was employed as a teacher, though most of her earlier married years were devoted to raising a family and supporting her husband. Margaret was a lifelong advocate of the 4-H, the Savoy United Methodist Church and Boy Scouts. Her sister, Marietta Brockhouse lives in Bloomington, Illinois. Also remaining to cherish her memory is her husband, Quentin and their 5 children: Quentin Jr., Maurice, Tom, Sarah (Hudson) and Earl and a host of other family and friends. A burial service will be scheduled in Illinois later this summer. Expressions of sympathy may be sent to her son, Maurice at snookmaurice@gmail.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Margaret L. Snook

October 06, 2023 at 06:29 AM

“ Margaret L. Snook

September 24, 2022 at 12:12 PM

“ I was saddened to hear of Mrs. Snook's passing. What an awesome lady! I volunteered at the assisted living community where she lived. We always had much to talk about as I am a special education teacher. She was always so accepting and encouraging of the special needs student i brought to volunteer with me. I always looked forward to her beautiful smile, words of encouragement, and love all around. She will definitely be missed.

summer - August 22, 2013 at 06:20 PM

“ I'm miss you Aunt Margaret..... Always a true lady.....

Melanie Cameron - July 22, 2013 at 09:07 AM

“ I will miss Aunt Margaret

Erick Smith - July 20, 2013 at 09:32 AM

MS

“ Mom was a small person, but large in her role of watching over & caring for the entire family! ”

---

maurice snook - June 04, 2013 at 05:23 AM