After post stationing with the Marine Corps the couple settled in Jackson, with Mrs. Steed worked as a secretary at Jackson Elementary school, in the time office at the Savannah River Site, and with her husband operating the Jackson Drag Strip. Following retirement Mrs. Steed enjoyed gardening and “killing weeds”, traveling to Washington DC to visit military monuments, and watching her birds and squirrels while sitting in her sun-room with her adopted kitten “Fatso”. Mrs. Steed was a member and faithful worshiper at Bethel Methodist Church.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband,

Leonard Beasley Steed, Jr.; son, Leonard Mark Steed; granddaughter, Laurie Ann Proctor; brother, Albert Herman Jansen, Jr.

Survivors include her son, Kim Jansen Steed; great-grandchildren, Thomas Proctor and Brooklyn Proctor; and sister, Rosemary Helen Jansen Hooks.

The family would like to thank the nurses and staff of Enhabit Home Health for providing care for both Mr. and Mrs. Steed, and to Bonita Smith for providing care to Mrs. Steed.
