“ I've been told that from the moment she laid eyes on me, I was "her baby". I have never known a more loving, patient, soft spoken, and considerate lady in my life. I strive to be like her and I thank the Lord everyday for the time I was allowed to spend with her. I will miss her terribly and cannot wait until the day I get to see her again. She always made me feel like I was something special and she always had time for me. I love you, Grandma.##imported-begin##Christian Little##imported-end##

“ I will never forget "Margaret's" kind and loving spirit. I was always welcome in the Carter home and was one of her "children". She always put her familys needs before her own. She always encouraged me and Rebecca and would have such patience when we were learning to sew. Heaven sure did get sweeter this morning when Margaret left us. May God provide the Carter family a peace that surpasses all understand and strength for the days ahead. Always remember we are only one heart beat away from seeing her smiling face again.

With all my love,
