“ It is so hard to believe that she's gone. But, we must remember, that she is w/her Lord and Saviour. She is no longer in pain, and is now reunited w/Granddaddy Steve, Granny, and all her sisters. And, we will see her again one day. I am truly blessed to have had her as my Grandmother for the past 40 years. She will live in my memory forever. I love you Grandma, and I will miss you everyday. Thank you for helping turn me into the young lady I am today. I guess you finally did turn a lady out of Lizzie! It was an honor to share not only your name but also your birthday. Rest in peace, until we meet again.##imported-begin##Margaret Bates Baumer##imported-end##

“ *She has passed in the quiet,
Of the Father's house of rest;
With the light of sunset shining
From the home beyond the west.*

*She is freed from all her burdens,
Loss of strength, and pain and care,
And her soul is filled with singing
Songs of praise, instead of prayer.*

*She has met again her dear ones,
On that sunny tranquil shore,
And she is not sad or lonely,
But is glad for evermore.*

*Who can mourn for her departure
When such peace and rest is given?
She who sees the face of Jesus
Is at home with him in heaven.*

I love you Grandma and will remember and miss you always.##imported-begin##Margaret Barnes##imported-end##
