“ I am very saddened to learn of the passing of Marge. She and my Mom, Ruth Boone were the best of friends and called themselves sisters. I grew up watching them have fun spending time with each other, talking, laughing and attending the same church service together. Marge was a wonderful, kind, caring and loving lady and heaven will be an even brighter place with her there. May God give all the family the strength to face the days ahead without her smile and loving ways and may you always find comfort in your wonderful memories of her.

“ Where she has gone she will not be small.
Her soul is as wide as the world is tall.
She has gone to answer the call, the call
Of the One who takes care of us all.
Wherever you look, you will find her there-
In the heart of a rose,
In the heart of a prayer.
On butterflies' wings, on wings of her own,
To us, She's gone,
But she will never be alone-
She is home.
God saw that she was getting tired,
A cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around her
and whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched her suffer,
And saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes "the best".
All our love forever-
