Margie is survived by her loving sister, Julianne Lovins, of Dearing, GA, sons Michael Landrum (wife Beth) of Houston TX and Marty Landrum (wife Lisa) of Jackson, SC; daughters Michelle Cross (husband Kirk) of Holly, MI and Melinda Moroz of Vonore, TN; seven grandchildren, Ashley "Punk Rock" Woods, Dave Landrum (wife Florence), Joe Landrum (wife Isabel), Collin Landrum, Evan Landrum, Meadow Cross, and Mikel Moroz; five great-grandchildren, Andy Cross, Savannah Taylor, Hannah Taylor, Maya Landrum and Camila Landrum.

Caring for her husband and four loving children was a lifelong commitment and paramount to her life.

Margie was a member of the Sandy Acres Garden Club for 33 years where she fostered many lifelong relationships. As much as she was passionate about a pristine garden, she cherished her beloved friends. Margie enjoyed family time at the lake where she would attract blessings by feeding the crows, cheering on “Margie’s Dawgs” and “Margie’s Braves”, dancing to Tina Turner, and living up to her reputation as “the Michael Jordan of Cooking” preparing her delicious Chicken and Dumplings with Sweet Potato Casserole.

Margie’s infectious spirit and energy will be terribly missed by her loving family and all those that were blessed by her gentle touch. Margie loved Jehovah with her whole heart, mind and soul.

Margie’s family would like to acknowledge the compassionate care she received the past four and a half years from L & L Sweet Home Care.
