“ *Dear Mom,
I know that these 8 years weren't kind to either of us...but even though I haven't seen or spoken to you in 8 years there wasn't a day that went by that I didn't think about my mom. I love you and I always will. I'm sorry that I didn't forgive you..I'm sorry the last words I said to you were I hate you...I am so sorry mom:(I hope one day in heaven I can tell you how much I really love you.
Love your daughter

“ She never judged anyone regardless of how they seemed and always was willing to give the shirt off her back. My best memory would have to be the day we met each other, and riding on her 4 wheeler.

“ I have waited for the day when someone would come and stay to come into my heart and never would part friends from the start friends in my heart. You were there to wipe my tears, you were there to soothe my fears. You saw my highs and lows how you stood it, only God knows. You were sent into my life to help me through the pain and strife. More than a friend you were to me and friends we will always be. Now that God has taken you away, In my heart you will always stay. Your memories will keep me safe and sound, even though you are not around. When a rainbow I can see, I'll know that you are in heaven thinking of me. For friends are never really apart, because they hold each other in their hearts. You were one of my very best friends. I will never forget you. I love you Maria.

“ Too many memories to put into text, but they are all cherished & wonderful my friend!! Lost touch and searched for you for years now, this is not how I expected to find you, With a heavy heart I say I will love and miss you, Your journey has reached a higher plain that we will someday meet upon. I shed tears for you today Maria, Tears of sadness for myself knowing I will not see you again in this life, and tears of joy for you as now you are up there praying for the well being of all of us as I know you will, Peace be with you my old friend..... “ My heart sank this morning when I learned of Maria's passing. She, Jennifer and I were inseparable as teenagers. She was an awesome friend who was always there for me. I will miss her so much! We had lost contact but I know if we had run into each other we could have taken right back up were we left off. Maria, I love you and wish you well on your everlasting journey. One day I will see you again.

“ I remember the evening that my brother brought Maria, his then girlfriend and later his wife, home to meet the family. She was quiet, a little shy, and obviously very nervous to meet the parents. My mother, telling a story and using her hands and arms for emphasis, knocked her full drink glass right into Maria's lap. Drink splattered everywhere, including her face. Not sure of what her reaction would be, we turned to look in her direction expecting to see embarrassment or anger, instead we seen a huge smile that quickly turned into a full blown laugh. Talk about an ice breaker. I believe it was at that very moment Maria became a part of our family. Soon after she not only became my sister in law but also my friend. Unfortunately, their marriage didn't work out and we lost contact. I hadn't seen her for many years until last year when we ran into one another. Instead of the usual awkwardness and avoidance that normally takes place between ex- in laws, we hugged tightly. If I had known that was the last time I would see her I would've said.... The years we spent as not only family but also as friends will always be cherished memories. You were a nice fit in this sometimes crazy family and forever connected to us. Thank you for April, if not for you we wouldn't have her and Mary Rose.

Rest in peace Maria. We will look out for April and Mary Rose, as I'm sure you will from where you are.

Sincerely,

Angie Ables Weyerman

“ I remember Maria from childhood when we sang in chior together at First Baptist Church. She had a beautiful voice then, and I like to think that she will now sing with the angels in Heaven. Rest in peace Maria. Sincerely,

“ I remember a beautiful young girl,who became my daughter-in-law a long time ago.The happy bride on her wedding day, as her beloved grandfather walked her down the aisle and gave her to my son.She later presented me with a beautiful baby girl--April Danielle Adams. who since gifted us with a great granddaughter--Mary Rose Scoggins. I have not seen Maria in a few years,but will always remember the lovely person she was.May she rest in peace .
