“ Marie married my Uncle Earnest and the two of them were beacons of joy even when life was dealing them issues with aging bodies. I treasure the visits from both of them. It was so easy to love them.

“ My heart goes out to all of Marie's family and friends, as I know how much I will miss her, and can only imagine how much you all will. Marie could light up a room, a person, no place could stay dark with her around. She has been a light, friend and comfort to me. She was amusing, so funny, but her love for the Lord was so deep and constant, that His joy bubbled over in her, always. I love you, Joni and Alex. I know her spirit is beside you both. Jeanne Still. P.S. "Cuz" loved her also.
