“ *Dearest Tony and Sandra,
For many years you and your parents lived across the street from us on Tisdale Street.
My Mother, Gerry Self, dearly loved "Mrs Marie". She was a sweetheart and a wonderful, Christian woman. No more Tisdale Street - she's walking on streets of gold now with your Dad. She would tell you it doesn't get any better than that! Loved her and we are praying for your during the difficult days ahead.
Thinking of your dear family with love,
Harold and Pat Glazener*

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I remember when we were little Marie came over and dolled mama up. She was going to some party and Marie put makeup and jewelry on mama. She looked so good! They were such good friends along with Daddy and Red. She was a great lady and I always thought she was so pretty. My heart goes out to you and Tony.
