

Marion Cook Klakamp

July 31, 1926 - March 19, 2017

Aiken, SC—Graveside Services for Mrs. Marion Cook Klakamp, 90 of Aiken, SC, who passed away peacefully on March 19, 2017, will be conducted Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the Pine Grove Cemetery, Russell, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Klakamp was a native of Warren, Pennsylvania, a former resident of New Smyrna Beach, Florida, having made Aiken her recent home. She was formerly employed by the Northwest Savings in Warren before moving to Florida where she retired from Security First Federal. She and her husband, Henry, also owned and operated a motel in New Smyrna Beach and Laundromats in New York, Pennsylvania and Florida. Mrs. Klakamp was predeceased by her husband, Henry Klakamp; parents, Van and Wilma Cook; three brothers, Wayne Cook, Richard Cook and Ronald Cook.

Marion was a 1945 graduate of Warren High School and enjoyed attending her class reunions. She had many hobbies and activities she enjoyed, sewing, quilting, dancing, karaoke, travelling and was a beginner oil painter. Marion was tough, willful and enjoyed life especially spur of the moment adventures, no matter how trivial. She'll be dearly missed and her memories will stay strong.

Survivors include three daughters, Judy Peck, Kansas City, MO, Jan (Andy)

Cwalina, Aiken, SC and Tina (Doug) Watson, Kingston, TN; two grandchildren, Garrison Frazier and Emily Frazier; an aunt, several nieces, nephews and cousins; many wonderful friends in Florida who were like family to her.

In Lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Heart Association, PO Box 5211, Aiken, SC 29804 or Alzheimer's Association, 106 SRP Drive, Suite A, Evans, GA 30809

Cemetery Details

Pine Grove Cemetery

Liberty Street
Russell, PA 16345

Previous Events

Service

MAR 25. 10:00 AM (ET)

Pine Grove Cemetery
Liberty Street
Russell, PA 16345

Tribute Wall

“ Marion Cook Klakamp

October 06, 2023 at 06:29 AM

“ Marion Cook Klakamp

September 24, 2022 at 12:12 PM