“ Papa was the was my daddy. He raised me when he did not even have to. I miss him so much. He never gave up on me. He always showed me how to be compassionate and kind. I miss him so much and wish I could get time back. No matter how bad off I was he always had hope for me. I love you papa with all my heart and miss you everyday. I am proud to say I am the man you raised me to be now.
