“ I will miss Mark dearly. He was always someone in your corner and someone to lend a helping hand. No matter where I was traveling he was someone that I could shoot a text and expect a reply that made me laugh, IN ALL CAPS.

Not only was he a good friend. He was a good leader. He was the best site foreman any group of misfits could ask for.

One of my favorite times was when me and Michelle had the chance to go with Mark and Leigh to Halls Chophouse in Charleston and finished the evening at the Theater at Charleston Hall.

If there was something I knew about Mark he made us all good eggs.

“ Leigh, Mark, and Heath - I'm so sorry for your loss. Having a hard time believing that he's gone. Mark and I made some great memories at Granny and Pa's house, and some pretty good ones when we got older too. I'll cherish each of those memories forever. Praying for all of you.
