“ I chose to post this for Mark's family and friends and mostly for myself. I write this with the utmost respect to his wife and family.

Mark was my step dad from about 1985-91. He was intense, he was kind, he was harsh at times and he was learning to be a father figure in his 20's after getting married to my mother. He worked hard, he loved exercising and he taught me how to lift weights. He could build anything, including his own Bowflex which was unbelievable to me. He called me "Slim, my brother Brian "Doc" and my youngest brother Nathan "Candy". He was better to me than my brothers because I was older and more of a buddy, and my younger brothers needed nurturing which was challenging for him. I really think you were doing your best, Mark. I'm sad for a few reasons- because he shouldn't have faced such an ominous medical condition at 55, and because I didn't try harder to catch up w/ him over the years.

I remember him being beloved by his mother Ruth. Mark, you were loved by my Mom, by me and I know you have a special place in my brother's hearts. Thank you for everything you taught me and for being a special person to my family when they needed you.

May your family have peace knowing you had such an impact on a lot of people's lives and you won't ever be forgotten.

“ I never knew Mark personally. His Father Lonnie is married to my sister, Lee, and I have spent many years hearing the tales of Mark's life. I wish I had known him, we both did the same type of work, and from everything I've heard over the years from Lonnie and Lee, I'm sorry I never got the chance. Mark came to Maine and visited my Mother and he was very kind, leaving a lasting impression on my Mom. That alone says a lot to me.
I'm very sorry for your loss. I wish there was something I could say to lessen the grief and emptiness you must be feeling.
Our deepest sympathy and condolences go out to you all. May God Bless you and keep you safe. You will always be in our prayers.

“ I remember Mark bringing my son a cocker spaniel puppy when my son was only 4. My sons puppy had died and Mark had come by to visit, saw my son crying over his puppy. The next day Mark brought my son the cutest blonde cocker spaniel puppy ever! When my son was little, Mark never forgot my sons birthday, and always brought him a Christmas gift. When Mark "Thunderbolt" would go to Wagner to see his family, he would stop by for a surprise visit often. Mark will be greatly missed. Jimmy and Susan Bass
