My husband and I are so lucky to have met and known Marlene and her husband Herman. We met her at St. Bartholomew's one Sunday several years ago. Marlene was the nicest, smartest, most sincere and generous person I know, and we enjoyed doing things together, talking on the phone, going out for lunch, writing letters to each other and laughing mostly about ourselves and how hard it was to be getting older. She would say, "Old age isn't for sissies!" Oh my, I am going to miss you like crazy. Rest in peace, dear friend, we love you and know without a doubt you are with God.

“ *I was sadden to learn about the death of Marlene and was out of town at the time of her funeral.
I had the honor to work with Marlene at DHA for many years . She was a great nurse and a special lady.
My prayers are with the family.
