“ Marsha was my neighbor for 49 years. She will be greatly missed. I have many precious memories of Marsha. She was thoughtful, kind, and generous with her time. She took time to call and check on many of the residents in Jackson. Above all Marsha loved her Savior Jesus Christ. She often called to tell me what scripture she was reading. Her friends and family will find comfort in knowing that she is at peace.

“ I am sorry for your loss. Marsha called me often just to tell me about someone sick. I think she just wanted to talk. I know she will be missed. Dica is probably waiting at the gate.
