“ Dear Beier family, Our families (Bill & Dian, Bill & Kajse, and Dan & Sirena Conkright, Kris & Tobi Merschat) were sorry to hear of Mary's death. We have many fond memories of Our Lady of Peace activities - both school and Church, as well as friendships shared over the years. Mary was ALWAYS kind, considerate, encouraging and loving. My Mom, Mary Lou Merschat, thought the world of her and always looked forward to their Tuesday Morning Prayer group. May God grant you peace and consolation in your loss, but also gratitude for having such a wonderful woman as Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother. Our prayers are with you. Love, Bill and Dian Conkright

“ *Dear Thomas (Tom) and family, this is Richard Samulski and I am deeply sorry to hear about your mothers loss. I was fortunate enough to see her one more time when she attended the mass for my mothers funeral February 29, 2016. There are numerous memories that I carry with respect to our two families growing up together. It seems that it was only yesterday when all this took place. I hope that everyone in your family can find peace with her passing and realize that all of the SAMULSKI's are thinking of you at this moment in time. With warm regards
