“ You were and are more than your obituary could describe. What a legend you have established for your family. Thank you for coming to my wedding in 1962 in Moultrie, Georgia. You came with your daughter Sandra Lee Travis who was a bridesmaid and my college roommate for our last years at Emory in Atlanta.

I saw you again in the mid 1990's and you were as pretty and sharp as you were in 1962. And, you have lived for an extraordinary period of time after that visit to Atlanta. I have always admired and respected Sandra and you were instrumental in shaping who she is.
