“ In reading recent obituaries I came across that of your loved one, and I would like to express my condolences. I too loss someone very dear to me and understand how very painful and difficult it can be to deal with. So my purpose in writing is to share some encouraging thoughts that help me through these trying times. Only through God's Word the Bible can we find real comfort. In fact it calls God the "Father of Tender Mercies and the God of all comfort." (2Corinthians 1:3,4) Also Note Jesus words of comfort spoken to Martha, who just lost her brother, in John 11:23-25, "Your brother will rise, I am the resurrection and the life, he that exercises faith in me even though he dies will come to life." What a wonderful promise! I hope these verses help some. Please feel free to contact me.

“ Dear Friends,

You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Mary Helen was a very special lady. When I think of her I smile, she always had a smile and good word for everyone.

I can just see her now with her new body dancing all over Heaven with her beloved Addie. She now know just what our FATHER looks like. We have to wait a while then we too will joyen07@comcast.net know.

I love you, Joye
