“ I have known "Aunt Sue" for most of my life. Although many years would go by between visits, I got to see her more often in the last 6 years since she moved to North Augusta to be near my BFF, Ginny. Every time I went to see Ginny we would always go to see Aunt Sue. I loved her dearly. She was a wonderful woman and I will miss her until we meet again. I am happy to know that she is in the arms of Jesus.
