“ A very special lady. We shared three Years as State Regents and then three more years as VPG, NSDAR. What wonderful memories of fun and fellowship. A guest at her home in SC and her visit to my home in MI added great memories to our friendship. Mary Elizabeth was a remarkable Southern Lady.

Gloria D. Bailey Hunt, Mrs. Maxwell E. - June 07, 2011 at 03:20 PM

“ Mary Elizabeth Vaughn was the personification of the qualities and characteristics that so many of us hope for but few achieve. She was steadfast in her love of her family and in her dedication to her Lord who she constantly sought to serve. Her energy and delightful personality brightened many moments and her graciousness was unsurpassed. She taught others of us the importance of celebrating our heritage as a way of better understanding who we are.

She was a remarkable blessing to me and I am forever grateful that she was a part of my life!
