“Mary perfectly and lovingly performed her roles as mother and minister's wife. She never missed sending a yearly card and newsy note on my birthday and at Christmas. She sat with us in the hospital for the many weeks of my father's final illness. She even volunteered to come to Beech Island to baby sit four toddlers so my sister and I could go together to meet with the doctors at the hospital in Augusta. Mary was the epitome of a good and faithful servant.
