“ I still have no words to express, I'm still in disbelief. But wanted to share a story about Matthew that I will never forget.

He had a dog named “Buckets”. I think Buckets loved me more, or at least came to visit when Matthew wasn't home. I'm not sure which. You see, I was his neighbor for many years. One morning, I woke up and peered into my living room. I saw my dogs (Sally, Jessie, Maggie) laying on the couch. In my deep sleep I counted 4 dogs. I laid back down. A few minutes later, I guess I thought about my “count”. “Wait I counted 4 dogs on my couch”. It was “Buckets”. He dug under the fence, came through my doggie door and made himself at home.

Matthew's first dog. “Buckets”. I let him stay most of the day. “Buckets loved his daddy , Matthew. He went home once Matthew got back from school. I think.

I watched Matthew grow up. It came full circle for me. My little 3 year old neighbor to my 24 year old colleague.

Michelle and Blaine, be proud of the man he became. Loved by all

“ My heart goes out to Matt's family and friends. He was a pure treasure of a young man. I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to coach him at Fox Creek and to know him as a friend. He certainly touched my life in a very positive way. I pray that God will have his hand upon Matt's family during this time of loss. Peace, comfort, and grace to all that are effected by his passing. See you on the other side Matthew.

“ To Matt’s parents,
Thank you for bringing such a bright light into this dark world- and thank you for sharing him with us all. I have no doubt that there isn’t anyone that knew Matt that is not greatly affected and heartbroken over his passing. Yes, Matt was the “life of the party”, but he was also so much more. He was an intelligent conversation (so incredibly wise BEYOND his years), he was words of encouragement on days that would seem unbearable, and he was a person that would leave a permanent stamp on every heart he crossed paths with. I thank you for instilling the wonderful qualities into your son so that we all had the pleasure and privilege of getting to experience. The one thing I’ve always said to myself about Matt Harley was that someone did an exceptional job at raising him. I pray for peace and comfort in the days ahead for your precious family.
